OUR BOOK DEPARTMENT

These are among the outstanding children's books of 1954. In addition you may wish to select from our book catalogue, which lists over 500 titles, old and new, arranged by age and subject. In our book department you will find, the year round, several thousand titles — the classics as well as the best of the new.

A 030-1 BOOK OF NURSERY AND MOTHER GOOSE RHYMES $5.00
(2 to 8 yrs.)—A beautiful book. Marguerite de Angeli's illustrations, over 260, some in full color, and many pencil sketches abound in imagery and humorous detail. Children will love the book, and will always remember it. It is unusually complete, having 376 rhymes.

B 030-2 WHEN YOU WERE A LITTLE BABY $2.00
(2 to 5 yrs.)—The perfect answer for children who want stories about what they did when they were little. Lots of pictures from the cradle to the pincure—and a few words about the good things and the bad things a baby does. The book is also good for children when there is a new baby in the family. By Rhoda Berman, illustrated by Mariana.

C 030-3 A FOR ANNABELLE $2.50
(3 to 6 yrs.)—Two little girls play with Annabelle, a delightful old fashioned doll in this charming story and alphabet book. By Tasha Tudor, with her prettiest full color pictures.

D 030-4 GATEWAY TO STORYLAND $2.50
(3 to 7 yrs.)—A revised and enlarged edition of a popular collection of very young stories. A large book with over 150 brightly colored pictures, and 21 stories — each a proven favorite with young children. Edited by Watt Piper, illustrated by Eulalie.

E 030-5 BEADY BEAR $2.00
(3 to 6 yrs.)—A story of a teddy bear. An eventful, laughable, happy story which will have a very strong appeal for little children. Written and illustrated by Don Freeman.

F 030-6 WONDERFUL THINGS! $2.50
(3 to 6 yrs.)—Beautiful drawings of horses. Especially one foal from the day he was born until he grew big enough to crop grass. His joyous delight in new day-by-day discoveries is recaptured both in the story and the pictures. Written and illustrated by Zhenya Gay.

G 030-7 CIRCUS RUCKUS $2.00
(3 to 7 yrs.)—Hilarious pictures and story show a boy and his dog taking an unexpected but most active part in circus performance, both in the spot-light and behind the scenes. By Will and Nicolas.

H 030-8 HORTON HEARS A WHO! $2.00
(5 to 8 yrs. up)—Dr. Seuss's latest book is one of the funniest—both in the pictures and the story. It also carries a timely and appealing moral.

J 030-9 WHAT CAN A HORSE DO? $2.00
(4 to 8 yrs.)—Hilarious drawings of horses and children illustrate the brief and funny story of what would happen if a horse tried to act like a child—and the other way around. Written and illustrated by Pers Crowell.

T 030-17 FIND THE CONSTELLATIONS$3.00
 (8 to 12 yrs.)—A very good astronomy book for an amateur of any age. The unusual illustrations show clearly the sky views, planet finders and time tables. The text is scientifically accurate and also direct and simple. Written and illustrated by H. A. Rey.

U 030-18 THE BLUE HERRING MYSTERY$2.75
 (8 to 12 yrs.)—An Ellery Queen Jr. mystery—written with the skill and fast action of an adult Ellery Queen book. Plenty happens, and real detective work is required of the hero, and the reader.

V 030-19 MYSTERY OF THE PIPER'S GHOST$2.50
 (10 to 14 yrs.)—The unmasking of a ghost, and a daring rescue from a blazing mine, climax this absorbing suspense story. It is laid in Nova Scotia. By Zillah K. MacDonald, illustrated by Eleanor Troth.

W 030-20 TENTH BIRTHDAY$2.25
 (8 to 12 yrs.)—An exceptionally good book. Each chapter is a period story centering around a little girl's tenth birthday. The first is in 1844 and the last in 1950. By Evan Commager, illustrated by Don Sibley.

X 030-21 JOKES, JOKES, JOKES$3.00
 (10 yrs. up)—265 pages gathered together for sheer amusement. Jokes and funny sayings of every sort—from the best of the old chestnuts to the latest gag. Selected by Helen Hoke, illustrated by Richard Erdoes.

A 030-22 THE BLACK STALLION'S SULKY COLT.$2.00
 (10 yrs. up)—Walter Farley's newest horse thriller is about a worthy son of the Black Stallion. Alex Ramsey again proves his skill with horses—whether saddle champions or Hambletonian winners.

B 030-23 THE STAR-CROSSED STALLION$2.50
 (10-14 yrs.)—A beautiful spirited Arabian and the boy who tames him are the heroes of this excellent mystery story. Winner of the Dodd, Mead Boys' Life prize. By Patrick Lawson.

C 030-24 SILVER CHIEF'S REVENGE.....$2.50
 (10-14 yrs.)—A stolen uranium sample and a Communist plot lead the famous dog, Silver Chief and his master, Peter Thorne of the Canadian Mounted Police, on rugged adventure from the north Canadian woods, through the United States, to San Francisco. By Jack O'Brien, illustrated by Kurt Wiese.

D 030-25 THE LEATHERSTOCKING SAGA.....$3.50
 (12 yrs. up)—From the five James Fenimore Cooper stories those parts have been selected which deal with the exploits of Natty Bumppo, also known as Hawkeye, Pathfinder and Deerslayer. The result is a chronological and highly exciting and vivid picture of America from the Colonial New York frontier to the western prairies in Jefferson's Administration. A volume for a permanent library. Handsomely illustrated by Reginald Marsh. Edited by Allan Nevins, professor of history at Columbia University.

E 030-26 SIDE SADDLE FOR DANDY.....$2.75
 (Girls 12 yrs. up)—Not only is this a story of action and adventure, it also will appeal to readers because they will recognize so personally the pleasures and problems of the heroine. The background is Virginia before the Revolutionary War. By Nancy Faulkner, illustrated by Marguerite de Angeli.

F 030-27 VERONICA AT SADLER'S WELLS.....$2.75
 (Girls 12 yrs. up)—Based on the famous ballet school in London, this story will interest not only ballet enthusiasts but any girl who likes a good realistic plot, humor and a certain amount of romance. By Lorna Hill, illustrated by Oscar Liebman.

G 030-28 BEST SPORT STORIES: 1954.....$3.50
