

No. 3-100—Everybody Has A House $1.00
 No. 3-101—Pitter Patter 1.00
 No. 3-102—Saturday Walk 1.00
 Heavy durable pages, bright clear pictures and simple rhythmic text make these ideal books for the 2 to 4 year olds.

No. 3-103—Mother Goose—(2-6 yrs.) Tasha Tudor's delicate amusing pictures in color and black and white are very appealing. Seventy-seven favorite rhymes, each illustrated. $2.00

No. 3-104—Pinky and His Pals—(1-2 yrs.) In pretty colors, the animal pictures are raised so that the baby will love to feel the outlines. Durable pages, plastic binding. Boxed. $1.00

No. 3-105—The Woolly Lamb $1.25
 No. 3-106—The Furry Bear 1.25
 No. 3-107—The Shaggy Pony 1.25
 Children love to pat the pictures in these gay stories—the animals actually have fur that they can feel. 3 yrs. up.

No. 3-108—Timid Timothy—(3-7 yrs.) An hilarious story of a timid kitten's visit to a zoo, and his trial of bravery in a toy store. Children will love the yellow-eyed pictures and the surprise ending. $1.25

No. 3-109—Whose Little Bird Am I?—(2-5 yrs.) A baby stork looks for his mother and finds a different bird on each page. Lovely accurate pictures by Leonard Weisgard. $1.00

No. 3-110—Where Is Tommy?—(2-3 yrs.) By Tony Sarg, one of the best "books that move." The child lifts up a flap on each page to find Tommy. $1.25

No. 3-111—Magic Michael—(3-7 yrs.) Michael was always pretending to be something—something or other, a cow, a kangaroo, or a deep dark well. Louis Slobodkin's pictures of the little boy and his exasperated sister are very amusing and true-to-life. . . $1.50

No. 3-112—This Is the Milk That Jack Drank—(2-7 yrs.) Clear brightly colored pictures of the cow, the barn, the pail, the truck, and the milk that Jack drank. Good as an object picture book for the little child, and the familiar nursery rhyme and big print make it excellent as a first reader. $1.25

No. 3-113—Georgie—(4-8 yrs.) Very funny pictures and story about a friendly little ghost who lived in the attic and liked to make the stairs creak. By Robert Bright. $1.25

No. 3-114—Fix the Toys—(3-6 yrs.) Bright pictures of a teddy bear, a clown and six other toys and an envelope full of sturdy cardboard heads. It's fun to fit the right head on the right top—and fun to mix them up too. By the author of No. 3-115 "Find the Animals." ea. $1.50

No. 3-116—Little Choo Choo—(3-7 yrs.) About a rambunctious locomotive with a mind of its own. Colored pictures on every page. $1.00

No. 3-117—Stilty—(2-5 yrs.) A book about a deer that wouldn't eat. An unflappable deer at the back of the book shows the child on each bib-page. By Wm. Hall and C. G. Shaw. $1.25

No. 3-119—Daddy Comes Home—(2-5 yrs.) Charlotte Steiner's bright pictures and amusing happy climax will delight small girls. $1.25

No. 3-120—Epaminondas—(3-6 yrs.) A book of mishaps to please any child. An old story by Sara Cone Bryant, illustrated by Inez T. $1.25

No. 3-121—Gordon, the Goat—(3-6 yrs.) Children and adults agree that Munro Leaf's picture book is hilariously funny, and we think this is the best since "Robert Francis Weatherbe." $1.25

No. 3-122—Robert Francis Weatherbe $1.25

No. 3-248—Here Comes Daddy—(2-5 yrs.) Clear pictures of busses and cars and a little boy sees when watching traffic come home. $1.25

No. 3-249—Willie's Walk to Grandmama—(2-5 yrs.) Willie investigates, in story and detail, of exciting outdoor country things. By Margaret Wise Brown and L. Bloch. $1.25

No. 3-123

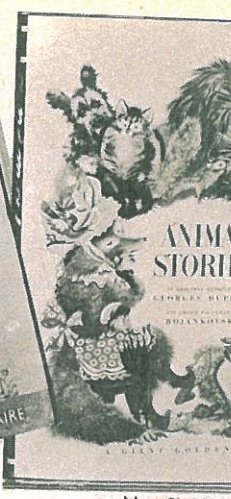

No. 3-124

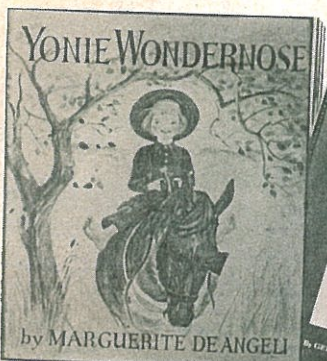

No. 3-125

No. 3-126

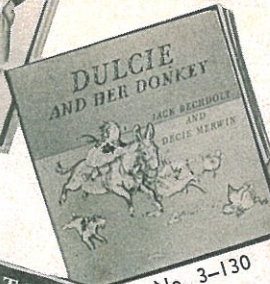

No. 3-127

No. 3-128

No. 3-129

No. 3-130

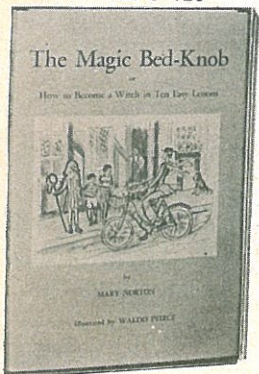

No. 3-132

No. 3-135

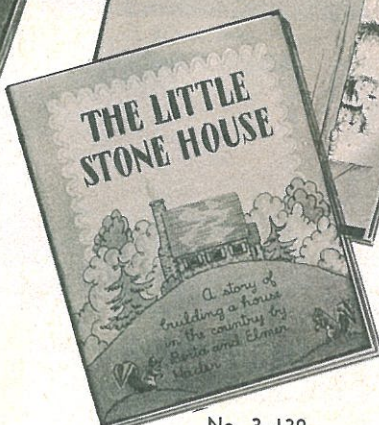

No. 3-136

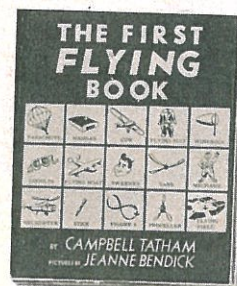

No. 3-137

No. 3-138

No. 3-139

No. 3-140

No. 3-141

No. 3 - 123—The Christ Child—(4 - 8 yrs.) The nativity story told in the King James version, with large pictures in color by the Petershams. A very beautiful Christmas book. . . . $2.00

No. 3 - 124—Sing for Christmas—(For all ages.) Thirty Christmas carols with music, 26 full-page colored pictures by Tenggren, and many black and whites. Selected by Opal Wheeler who relates the origin of many of the carols. . . . $3.00

No. 3 - 125—The Night Before Christmas—(For all ages.) Our favorite edition of Clement C. Moore's poem, illustrated in color by Reginald Birch. . . $1.00

No. 3 - 126—Wings for Per—(6 - 10 yrs.) An exciting story about a boy who learns to fly, and a moving interpretation of the conflict between freedom and tyranny. Beautiful lithographs, by the d'Aulaires. $2.50

No. 3 - 127—Animal Stories—(4 - 8 yrs.) Over 100 brightly colored pages of fascinating animal pictures by Rojankovsky, and a generous collection of all sorts of stories and jingles concerning just about every sort of animal. . . . $1.50

No. 3 - 128—Yonie Wondernose—(5 - 9 yrs.) Marguerite de Angeli's pictures in lovely colors, and her zestful way of telling a story make this tale of a Pennsylvania Dutch farm boy exceptionally delightful. $2.00

No. 3 - 129—Tit for Tat Tommy—(4 - 6 yrs.) Tommy and his friends have great fun swapping toys. Many of Charlotte Becker's attractive pictures of children playing, and a good story by G. Blumenthal. . . . $1.50

No. 3 - 130—Dulcie and Her Donkey—(5 - 8 yrs.) Little girls find Dulcie's exploits entirely intriguing, and they like the numerous amusing pictures. By J. Bechdolt and Decie Merwin. A sequel to No. 3 - 131 "Dulcie or Half-a-Yard-of-Lindsey-Woolsey." . . . ea. $1.50

No. 3 - 132—All the Year Round—(5 - 8 yrs.) Eight very simple short tales of small wild animals. An ideal first natural history written with knowledge and understanding by Alice Gall and Fleming Crew. Illustrated by E. Bostelman. . . . $1.25

No. 3 - 133—Lutie—(4 - 8 yrs.) Children and parents have delighted in Margot Austin's No. 3 - 134 "Peter Churchmouse." Her new story about a little boy is every bit as funny. . . . ea. $1.00

No. 3 - 135—Reward for Brownie—(5 - 8 yrs.) Small children and all horse lovers will like these fine pictures and story of a city police horse on active duty and during his retirement in the country. By the Hogners. $1.00

No. 3 - 136—All Aboard, We Are Off—(4 - 8 yrs.) Boys and girls love the apple lady and have an exciting time when she takes them for an airplane ride, with fine colored lithographs. . . .

No. 3 - 137—The Magic Bed-Knob; or How to Come a Witch in Ten Easy Lessons—(6 - 10 yrs.) really funny story that all the family will enjoy. Excellent pictures by Waldo Peirce. . . .

No. 3 - 138—Rex of the Coast Patrol—(6 - 10 yrs.) Vivid and credible story of a police dog's training with the coast guard. Written and illustrated by the Johnsons. . . .

No. 3 - 139—The Little Stone House—(4 - 7 yrs.) Titled entertaining pictures, and a gay story of a family building a small stone house in the country. The Haders. . . .

No. 3 - 140—The First Flying Book—(4 - 8 yrs.) Interesting text and pictures answer all the questions a child asks about airplanes, and how they are built. Rebus style text adds to the fun. By C. Tatham and Jeanne Bendick. . . .

No. 3 - 141—The Great Quillow—(5 - 9 yrs.) Children will laugh and ask to hear again this story of a tiny boy and a giant. Lively illustrations by Doris Lee. By James Thurber, whose No. 3 - 142 "Many, Many" ($2.00) received the Newberry Medal last year.

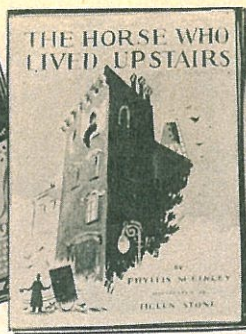

No. 3-143

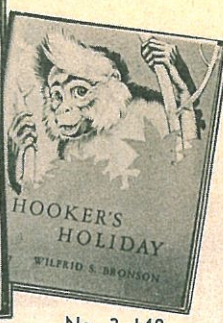

No. 3-144

No. 3-145

No. 3-147

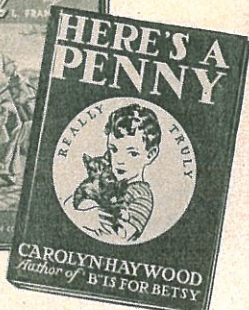

No. 3-148

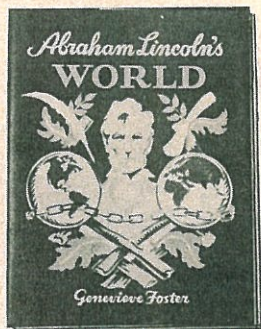

No. 3-149

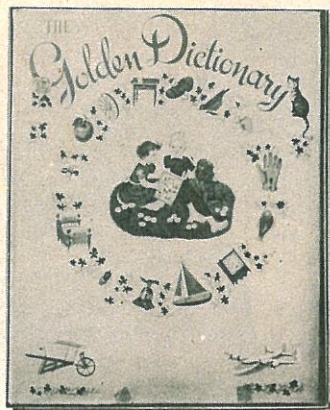

No. 3-151

No. 3-152

No. 3-156

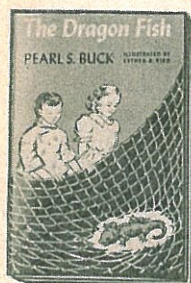

No. 3-158

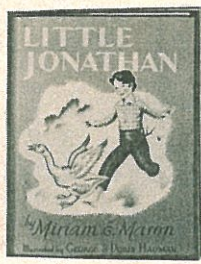

No. 3-159

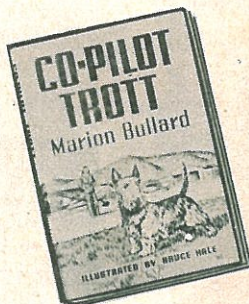

No. 3-162

No. 3-166

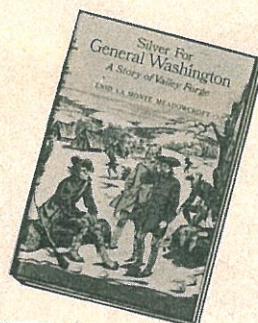

No. 3-167

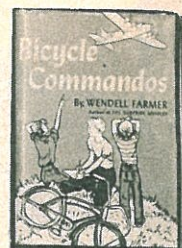

No. 3-170

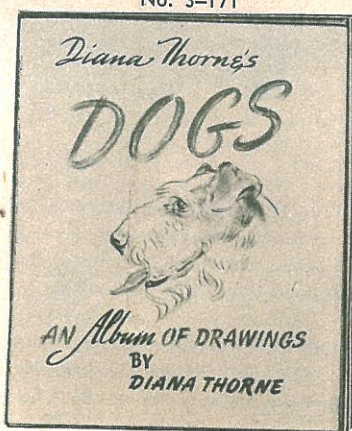

No. 3-171

No. 3-172

No. 3-173

No. 3-175

No. 3-143—The House That Tib and Tock Built—(6 yrs. up.) The very best "how to draw" book we have ever seen. Clear, easy, and fun to do. $1.00

No. 3-144—Children's Picture Cook Book—(6 yrs. up.) Easy receipts for all sorts of things children are likely to want to cook. Practical general instructions and amusing pictures. $1.50

No. 3-145—The Stay-at-Home Book—(6-14 yrs.) A most useful family book packed with suggested games to play, and things to do. Sequel to Cappy Dick's No. 3-146 "Fun for Boys and Girls." ea. $2.00

No. 3-147—The Horse Who Lived Upstairs—(3 yrs. up.) Phyllis McGinley's story of the city horse who lived at the top of a tall building will please parents as well as children of all ages. Many amusing drawings by Helen Stone. $1.25

No. 3-148—Hooker's Holiday—(6-10 yrs.) An hilarious story of a monkey who ran riot through a museum, and stirred up more excitement than that institution had ever known before. The big type makes it a good book for beginners to read to themselves. By Wilfrid S. Bronson. $1.75

No. 3-149—Shep and the Baby $1.00

No. 3-150—Doctor $1.00

Two attractive books for practice reading, with many of Diana Thorne's dog pictures. They are also amusing stories to read to younger children.

No. 3-151—The Wizard of Oz—(7-11 yrs.) The original story, but new pictures in color, and good clear type for this children's favorite by L. Frank Baum. $1.75

No. 3-152—Here's a Penny—(6-10 yrs.) Satisfactorily big and grown up in size, but simple words, big type and appealing story which make it easy for practice reading. By Carolyn Haywood, author of No. 3-153—"B is for Betsy," No. 3-154—"Betsy and Billy," No. 3-155—"Back to School with Betsy." ea. $2.00

No. 3-156—Abraham Lincoln's World—(10 yrs. up.) Illuminating pictures and fascinating text show what was going on all over the world at the time of our Civil War. An unusual and effective approach to world history. Companion to Genevieve Foster's No. 3-157—"George Washington's World." ea. $3.00

No. 3-158—The Golden Dictionary—First readers and even older children will delight in and learn much from this new dictionary which gives over 1,000 words, over 2,500 meanings for these words, and 1,500 pictures in color. Produced under the supervision of Teacher's College at Columbia University. $1.50

No. 3-159—Battles—How They Are Won—(9-12 yrs.) A unique method of explaining the principles of military strategy. Innumerable clear diagrams, maps and illustrations, non-technical language and telling similes make the book great fun to read, and easy to understand. Older than, but by the authors of No. 3-160—"Soldiers, Sailors, Fliers and Marines." ea. $2.00

No. 3-161—Augustus Flies
No. 3-162—Augustus Drives a Jeep
No. 3-163—Augustus Helps the Navy
No. 3-164—Augustus Helps the Marines
No. 3-165—Augustus Helps the Army

Boys from 7 to 11 are great Augustus fans. Le Grand's pictures are sure-fire hits, and you will find them on my lists.

No. 3-166—The Dragon Fish—(7-10 yrs.) Pearl Buck little Chinese girl and her American friend is, of course, and children will like it very well.

No. 3-167—Little Jonathan—(6-10 yrs.) Miriam E. M. No. 3-168 "Matilda" ($1.50), and "Timothy Has Ide been special successes as practice readers, and this Jonathan and his goose will be equally popular.

No. 3-170—Co-Pilot Trott—(8-12 yrs.) A Scottie beco England, and is a great help to his pilot mistress. By M trated by Bruce Hale.

No. 3-171—Rabbit-Go-Lucky—(6-10 yrs.) Boys and g lively story about a busy family and their exploits. Writ by Phyllis N. Coté.

No. 3-172—Silver for General Washington—(7-11) good action story of how two small boys help Wash Valley Forge. By E. LaM. Meadowcroft, illustrated by Sa

No. 3-173—Bicycle Commandos—(7-11 yrs.) A surpr plenty of mystery throughout for a group of young an By Wendell Farmer.

No. 3-174—Sky Ride—(7-11 yrs.) A true-to-life and exci for young boys. By Katherine Pollock.

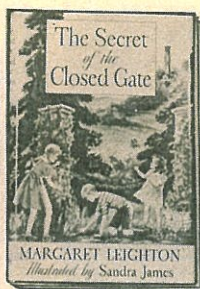

No. 3-175—Diana Thorne's Dogs—For dog lovers of c but an album of Miss Thorne's finest dog pictures in colo that the pictures can be taken out and framed.

No. 3-176

No. 3-177

No. 3-178

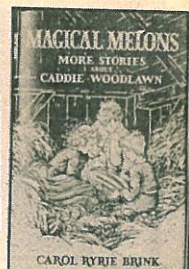

No. 3-180

No. 3-181

No. 3-182

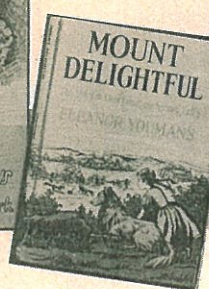

No. 3-183

No. 3-185

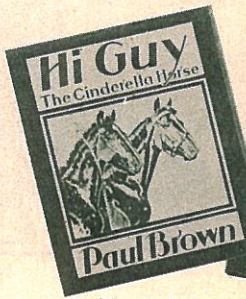

No. 3-179

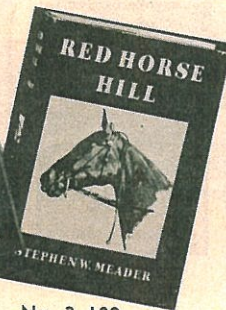

No. 3-186

No. 3-187

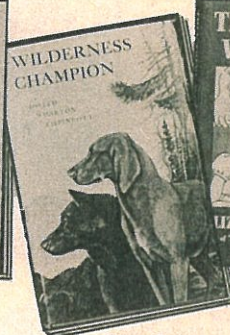

No. 3-188

No. 3-189

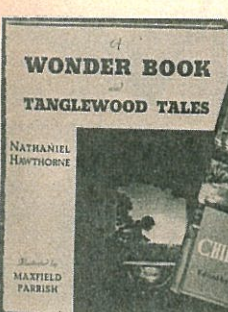

No. 3-190

No. 3-191

No. 3-192

No. 3-195

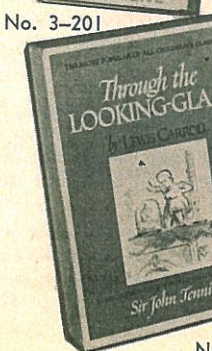

No. 3-196

No. 3-199

No. 3-200

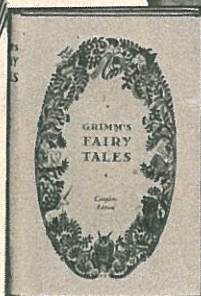

No. 3-201

No. 3-207

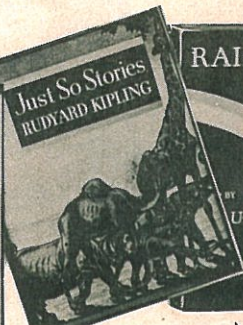

No. 3-202

No. 3-203

No. 3-204

No. 3-205

No. 3-206

No. 3-176—The Great Gold Piece Mystery—by Elizabeth Honness . . . $2.00
 No. 3-177—Green Turtle Mystery—by Ellery Queen, Jr. . . . 2.00
 No. 3-178—The Secret of the Closed Gate—by Margaret Leighton . . . 2.00
 No. 3-179—Mystery of the Hectic Holidays—by Jane Selkirk . . . 2.00
 8 to 12 year old mystery fans—both boys and girls—will find all four of these stories top-notch. And they are well written, too.

No. 3-180—Wilderness Clearing—(11 years up.) Walter Edmonds's knowledge of the Mohawk Valley in its wilderness days, and his ability to create a vivid story make this junior historical novel an outstanding achievement for boys or girls. . . . $2.50

No. 3-181—Little Champion—(8-12 years.) Bronco bustings, round-ups, branding, well described in a story by Ida Berry Riggs who knows ranching and horses. . . . $2.00

No. 3-182—Tomahawk—(8-12 years.) A spirited colt and a boy who loves horses match wits with a band of rustlers on the Western Prairies. By Thomas Hinkle. . . . $2.00

No. 3-183—Magical Melons—(8-12 years.) At last we have more stories about that delightful, lively little pioneer girl who has been such a favorite ever since the Newberry Medal was awarded to No. 3-184 "Caddie Woodlawn." . . . ea. $2.00

No. 3-185—Pierre Keeps Watch—(9-14 years.) A shepherd boy in a remote French village outwits the Nazis. An exciting, stirring book which will keep children reading eagerly, and leave them with a truer knowledge of France. By Maria Gleif . . . $2.00

No. 3-186—Mount Delightful—(8-12 years.) An eventful story of a Welsh family and their unusual sheep dog, who cross the ocean and pioneer in the west. By Eleanor Youmans. . . . $1.75

No. 3-187—Treason at the Point—(9-14 years.) A "modern Henty" story. A mystery-thriller centering around Benedict Arnold. Exciting reading and accurate history. By J. C. Nolan. . . . $2.00

No. 3-188—Hi-Guy! The Cinderella Horse—(9-14 years.) Paul Brown's story and pictures of a scarecrow horse which is taken from a pound and turned into a blue-ribbon winner will fascinate anyone who likes horses. . . . $2.00

No. 3-189—Red Horse Hill—(9-14 years.) All of Stephen Meader's stories are good, and this tale of a boy, his dog, and racing trotter has become a classic among young readers. . . . $2.00

No. 3-190—My Friend Flicka—(9 years up.) Mary O'Hara's famous horse story has been forcibly adopted by children. This slightly expurgated gift edition, beautifully illustrated by E. I. Mason is a splendid addition to a permanent library. . . . $3.00

No. 3-191—Wilderness Champion—(9 years up.) An outstanding tale of a pup which runs wild, and finally returns to his master to become the greatest hunting dog of Wyoming and later of Florida. By J. W. Lippincott, illustrated by Paul Bransom. . . . $2.00

No. 3-192—Then There Were Five—(9-12 years.) Elizabeth Enright's stories of the four children in the enterprising Melendy family have been very popular. This new sequel to No. 3-193 "The Saturdays," ($2.00) and No. 3-194 "The Four-Story Mistake," ($1.75) is the best of the series. . . . $2.00

BOOKS FOR FAMILY READING ALOUD.
 No. 3-195—A Wonder Book and Tanglewood Tales—(7 years up.) Have beloved stories are an ideal introduction to mythology. We recommend this edition, illustrated by Maxfield Parrish. . . .

No. 3-196—Anthology of Children's Literature—Contains over 700 selected including material for very little children and for those up to sixteen. Excellent reading aloud and reference for parents or teachers. Well edited by Johnson and Carrie E. Scott. Illustrated by N. C. Wyeth. . . .

No. 3-197—Mary Poppins . . .

No. 3-198—Mary Poppins Comes Back . . .

No. 3-199—Mary Poppins Opens the Door . . .

Everybody from six years up, ought to meet Mary Poppins, the remarkable who arrives on a rocket, slides up the banisters, and walks on the ceiling.

No. 3-200—Winnie the Pooh—A story . . .

No. 3-201—House at Pooh Corner—A story . . .

No. 3-202—When We Were Very Young—Verse . . .

No. 3-203—Now We Are Six—Verse . . .

Every child from five years up will want these inimitable books by A. A. with the Shepard illustrations.

No. 3-204—Grimm's Fairy Tales—A new revised and complete edition of Grimm's fairy tales. Many of the stories are to be read to children, and are for the pleasure of adults. A handsome book in clear type. 900 pages 212 illustrations by Josef Scharl. . . .

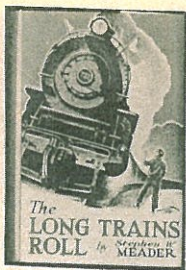

No. 3-205—Just So Stories—Beginning as early as five years old, and rest of their lives, all imaginative children delight in Kipling's tales of "H. Elephant got his Trunk," "The Cat who Walked by Himself," and other remarkable events . . .

No. 3-206—Rainbow in the Sky—An invaluable anthology of over 500 easy-to-learn jingles for children from 6 to 12. Selected by Louis Unterec from the classics and from modern poets. Illustrated by Reginald Birch. . . .

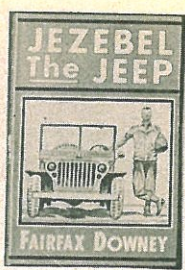

No. 3-207—Alice in Wonderland, and Through the Looking Glass—Har permanent Heritage Press editions, with all the original Tenniel illustrations. Two Books Boxed Together . . .

No. 3-208

No. 3-209

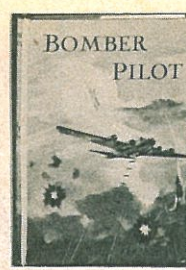

No. 3-210

No. 3-213

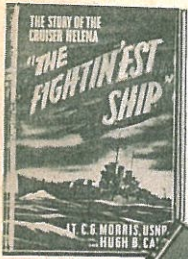

No. 3-214

No. 3-215

No. 3-217

No. 3-219

No. 3-220

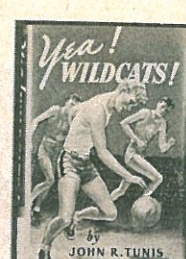

No. 3-221

No. 3-222

No. 3-223

No. 3-224

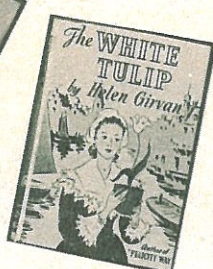

No. 3-225

No. 3-227

No. 3-230

No. 3-232

No. 3-233

No. 3-234

No. 3-235

No. 3-238

No. 3-208—The Phantom Freighter—(12 yrs. up.) A merchant vessel, painted completely white for camouflage, is sent on a strange and dangerous mission. Constant action with authentic background. By Felix Riesenberg, Jr. $2.00

No. 3-209—The Long Trains Roll—(10 yrs. up.) The four-track rail through the Appalachians is an important objective for saboteurs. How a young boy aids the F.B.I. to avert a catastrophe makes a thrilling tale and a vivid picture of railroad operation. By Stephen Meader. $2.00

No. 3-210—Jezebel the Jeep—(12 yrs. up.) No one will want to miss this battle tale of a soldier and his jeep. Action in Sicily told with vigor and often with humor. By Fairfax Downey, illustrated by Paul Brown. Companion to No. 3-211—"War Horse" and No. 3-212—"Dog of War." ea. $2.00

No. 3-213—Pilots, Man Your Planes!—(12 yrs. up.) An action-packed thriller of the "Flaming Flamingo" squadron in the South Pacific. By Frank W. Mason. $1.75

No. 3-214—General "Ike" Eisenhower—(12 yrs. up.) A lively, interesting biography of General Eisenhower. By Delos Lovelace, illustrated with photographs. $1.75

No. 3-215—Bomber Pilot—(12 yrs. up.) Suspense, and a dramatic account of a cadet's experience during his training and action as a pilot of a Flying Fortress. By Philip Harkins, author of No. 3-216—"Coast Guard, Ahoy." ea. $2.00

No. 3-217—Thunderbolt House—(12 yrs. up.) Howard Pease's latest mystery will be as popular as his other excellent stories. It is laid in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake. $2.00

No. 3-218—Storm Canvas—(12 yrs. up.) A stirring tale of an American ship which successfully runs the British blockade in the War of 1812. Winner of the Herald Tribune prize for the best older child's book published in the Spring of 1944. Written and illustrated by Armstrong Sperry. $2.50

No. 3-219—The Fightin'est Ship—An adult book. An authentic complete story of the remarkable battle record of the cruiser Helena in the South Pacific campaign. By Lt. C. G. Morris, U.S.N.R., radio officer aboard, and Hugh B. Cave. $2.50

No. 3-220—Jumper—(12 yrs. up.) A true and impressive story of a remarkable Siberian horse, from the time of his birth to his part in the first world war. By Nicholas Kalashnikoff, illustrated by Edward Shenton. An adult book, but excellent for older boys or girls. $2.50

No. 3-221—Northern Trail Adventure—(10 yrs. up.) An exceptionally fine adventure story, of an American boy, a Canadian Mounty, and their dog team on a dangerous and important mission in the Arctic. By West Lathrop. $2.00

No. 3-222—Mayflower Boy—(10 yrs. up.) There have been many stories of the Mayflower passage and the first settlement at Cape Cod, but this new book by Stanley Young is unusually vivid, and as exciting as any mystery. $2.00

No. 3-223—Some Follow the Sea—(12 yrs. up.) An inspiring story of the courage shown aboard a Merchant Marine freighter during a sea disaster. By Gregor Felsen. Illustrated with photographs. $2.50

No. 3-224—Yea! Wildcats!—(10 yrs. up.) Basketball, and the famous Indiana State tournament form the background for this newest of John R. Turn's popular books on good sport, and sportsmanship. $2.00

No. 3-225—Rookie of the Year—(10 yrs. up.) John R. Tunis' excellent baseball story was well liked when published this Spring. You couldn't do better for a boy who likes sport stories. $2.00

No. 3-226—Boomerang—Possible or impossible this tall tale of the astounding capture of a Jap destroyer is breath-taking reading. Commander Wm. C. Chambliss wrote the book, for adults, while on active duty and older boys will be thrilled by it too. $1.50

No. 3-227—Ann Bartlett in the South Pacific—(12 yrs. up.) One of the most realistic and eventful of the nursing stories, this tale of the Navy Nurses' work and adventures in Australia and New Guinea is a worthy sequel to Martha Johnson's No. 3-228—"Ann Bartlett: Navy Nurse" and No. 3-229—"Ann Bartlett at Bataan." ea. $2.00

No. 3-230—New Worlds for Jessie—(12 yrs. up.) A particularly good modern story of a girl from North Carolina and her experiences at a Swiss boarding school. By Kathryn Worth, author of the No. 3-231—"Middle Button." ea. $2.00

No. 3-232—The White Tulip—(12 yrs. up.) A thrilling historical background—of a young English girl in Holland. By William of Orange. By Helen Girvan. $2.00

No. 3-233—Love's Enchantment—(12 yrs. up.) 27 folk songs and ballads, exquisitely illustrated by Vera Bock. A will enjoy now and always keep. Selected by Helen Lambert. $2.00

No. 3-234—Innocent Wayfarer—(12 yrs. up.) Marjorie published last year, is a permanent favorite. True and very charming young girl make a lively story with a ground. $2.00

No. 3-235—The Youngest Wac Overseas—(12 yrs. up.) A story based on fact, of work in this country, a visit to England, and active motor transport duty in London. $2.00

No. 3-236—Whoa, Matilda!—(12 yrs. up.) Girls will love about No. 3-237—"Candy Kane" last year, as they do Lambert's books, and this new sequel is a particular favorite. The Kane family, now stationed in Washington. $2.00

No. 3-238—Lone Journey—(12 yrs. up.) An interesting tale of the life of Roger Williams. By Jeanette Eaton, illustrated by Helen Lambert. $2.00

No. 3-239—Sandra Mitchell Stands By—(12 yrs. up.) A story which changes character when she moves to a small New England town. She finds much to do, and even plays a leading part as a spy. By Martha Johnson. $2.00